

Relish driven pleasure is found in the prostration which is performed with love and devotion. Prostrations which are absent of these qualities are merely for show. There are those who say: "One needs but only perform the obligatory prostrations". It seems as though their worship is but a loan being repaid to their Lord Most Merciful ﷻ. Let not your prostrations cause you to be identified as an ungrateful creation, O Iqbal - You prostrate in one place whilst your mind is in another?
